

FEE DONATIONS:

Central Lutheran Church does not intend to receive a profit through user fees, but may request a donation to pay for expenses incurred by CLC, such as utility costs, maintenance, cleaning, employee expenses, etc. In most instances, a specific donation will be requested for a non-CLC use. However, CLC is mindful of its obligation as stewards to serve the community. The Church Council may waive fees upon the review of the application process. Moreover, the Church Council will review all fees on a yearly basis to keep current with community standards.
