Giving Thanks Together

Long before Europeans came to the east coast of North America the Wampanoag people had made what is now eastern Massachusetts their home for 12,000 years. They knew the land well and had fished, hunted and harvested for generations.

Then in 1620, a group of English Protestants (Puritans), who wanted to break from the Church of England, settled the Plymouth Colony on Cape Cod.

As the Puritans prepared for winter they gathered anything they could find.

Squanto, a leader of the Wampanoag who had experience with other settlers and knew English, helped the new arrivals with growing corn and using fish to fertilize their fields.

In March of 1621, after several meetings between the native people and the settlers, a formal agreement was made to join together to protect each other from other tribes.

In the Fall of 1621 the Wampanoag and the English, who never called themselves Pilgrims, joined with one another in a three day feast to celebrate the harvest. The first recorded religious Thanksgiving Day in Plymouth took place in 1623.

Tragically, such an inclusive gathering of native people and English settlers lasted for only a generation. For the Wampanoag people the traditional New England Thanksgiving holiday became a reminder of betrayal and bloodshed.

As we reflect on the history and prepare to celebrate another Thanksgiving holiday, think of our weekly "thanksgiving" event. The Lord's Supper, also known as the "eucharist" (Greek for "thanksgiving"), brings us together in one communion. The sacrament is a welcoming and inclusive celebration, as was the initial Thanksgiving, of bringing all people together in recognition of God's many gifts.

Wedding Celebration

Last month our entire family made the trip to the Grass Valley/Nevada City area of California for a wedding.

I officiated the ceremony of my niece and her new husband.

Teya dressed up for the celebration in her finest party attire.

Study and Discussion

Good Grief

"Grief never ends, but it changes.

It's a passage, not a place to stay.

Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith.

It is the price of love."

(Author Unknown)

Because of all the people and things in life we love, life is full of sorrow, sadness, distress, pain, suffering, and, adversity. Life is full of loss in many different forms. Unique in many ways. Common in many ways.

You are invited to these upcoming opportunities to share grief. To be comforted, to comfort. To be helped, to help. To be supported, to support others.

The next gatherings will be held on Tue, November 14th and 28th at 2 p.m. at our Arizona City site.

Youth Night Class

Our weeknight Bible study, discussion and activities offered to our elementary, middle school and high school students are held on Wednesdays from 6-7:30 p.m. at our Casa Grande campus. Current study topics include our review of Jesus in the gospel accounts, the Small Catechism, present day social issues, and what it means to be a Christian.

Classes for the different age groups are led by Kara Cooper and Pastor Thom.

Fall Softball Season

Your "Saints" completed the regular season with a record of 7 and 7, then fell one run short during a come from behind effort in the first round of the post-season tournament.

Once again our team returned nearly all of its players and put together a very competitive season. Thanks to Alyson Stephens for her role of team manager.

Special thanks to the many fans who have come out to support our team.

The winter season will begin in February with games at the Paul Mason Sportsplex on Pinal Ave. in Casa Grande.

Our Stewardship

As we approach the end of 2017, we continue to celebrate a 10% increase above offerings from last year, which had grown from the previous year.

Our continued growth reflects a greater number of worshipers, worshipers who have met their monthly offering goal (even when missing a worship service), and, those who have doubled their offering on the second Sunday of each month.

We have held the belief that many of us have had the ability to grow in our giving. Continuing to ask ourselves, “how come I don’t give more?”

Your contributions have made it possible for us to extend our benevolence to many areas of need. The council has designated $1,000 contributions to:

Habitat for Humanity -- this fall/winter is to be the first of several planned home constructions in Arizona City, watch for how you can make a donation and participate;

City of Joy -- we will be sponsoring a student in Rwanda for an entire school year;

Sonlight Camp -- since 1979 students from the southwest and across the nation have participated in this Christian camp experience outside Pagosa Springs, CO;

Lutheran Disaster Relief -- with the destruction of the recent hurricanes the ELCA provides extensive support to the relief and recovery efforts of the impacted regions;

Refugee Program -- Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest continues to support the resettlement of families from around the world in Arizona.

Thank you for your contributions to our growing ministry, helping us to grow our ministry within our congregation, to the Grand Canyon synod and the national church, and to those in need around the world.

Community Education Ministry

Our adult students are continuing to succeed in their ongoing study programs. We have had 5 students pass the math test, 3 language arts, 3 the science, 4 social studies, and, 7 civics. Three participants are on the verge of taking their next exams. Two have completed their GED tests and another is on track to earn his GED by the end of the year.

Our ESL language class has increased from 12 to 16 hours a week. Presently, there are 12 active participants (an increase from 10).

We currently have a Spanish speaking part time tutor, who has proven to be a great asset to our ministry.

You can help by volunteering as a GED or English tutor or making a donation -- designate as "adult education." Thank you for the donations received for this ministry!

Special thanks to Ron Jung, Judy Smith, and Kara Cooper for opening and locking the building as needed.

New Education Opportunity: Learn Spanish

Financial News

“What You Have First Given Us”

Merciful Father, we offer with joy and thanksgiving what you have first given us - our selves, our time, and our possessions, signs of your gracious love.

*Receive them for the sake of him who offered himself for us,
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

On the second weekend of each month we continue to prayerfully consider the challenge to double our offering. The reason for this proposal is the need to increase offerings and the belief many people have the ability to fulfill such a request. As we consider this challenge we can ask ourselves, “how come I don’t give more?” Thank you for your contributions to our growing ministry.

Internship Fund

The $28,000 of contributions received for the internship program have been invested in an ELCA Mission Investment Fund account. The council will continue to evaluate the possibility of participating in the internship program in the future.
